

Martin H. Malecki, Jr.
Alum of the Year
2009-2010

A lifetime resident of the Chicago area, Martin H. Malecki, Jr. earned his BSC in Finance from DePaul University in 1958.

He served in the U. S. Army for four years, and finished his service at the rank of First Lieutenant. He then joined Harris Bank, first as a commercial bank officer then as a bond specialist. He moved to Lehman Brothers in 1970, and then to Smith Barney in 1973 in positions of institutional bond sales. He retired from Smith Barney in 2001. He and his wife, Dorita (whom he met at a DePaul dance), have 3 children and nine grand children.

Mr. Malecki has been involved in many volunteer activities as a village trustee, member of various school boards, zoning boards, hospital boards and investment advisory boards. He has been very active at Notre Dame parish in Clarendon Hills and is a founding member of the Finance Advisory Board.